 Our City...

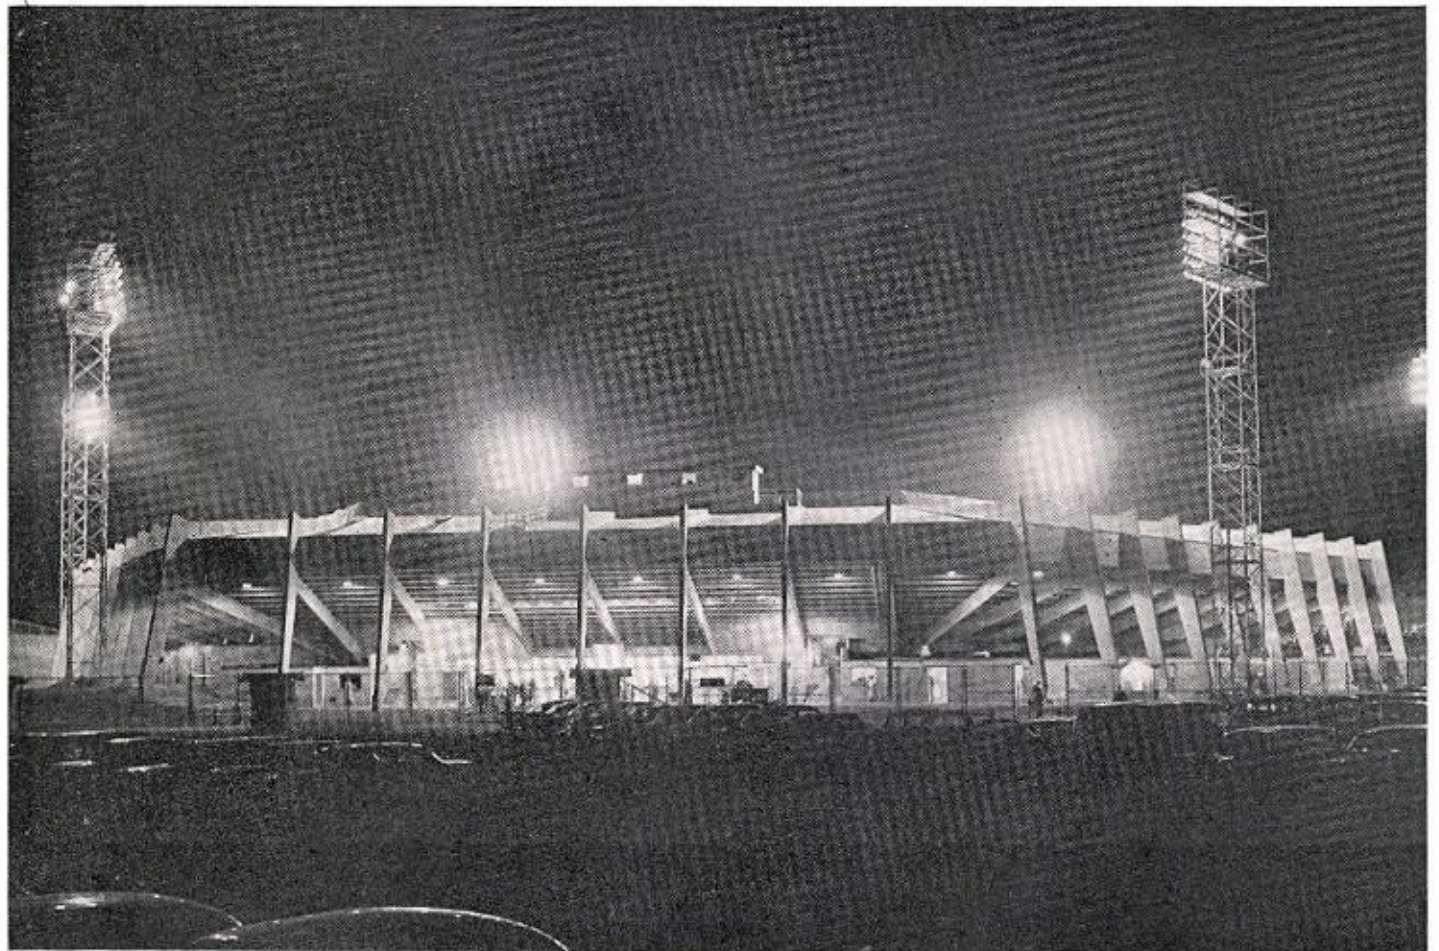

dear Sherry,
 Well next year we'll finally be seniors! We've had so much fun together these past years at Stewart and Lincoln. Remember when we went to the mountain - that was fun. It's really been nice having you as one of my friends. You're so much fun to be with! I know that even if we go to different schools or attend different colleges, we'll always be friends. I don't know what year at Lincoln I can get together with you. I'll see you at the Sherry and Rod's Lincoln games - at mid-June. Love,

News and Annual Staffs Chase Copy, Cuts,

Lincolnian members Paula Westholm, Social; Sharon Schafer, Album; Joan Grilley, Arts; Kathy Ellington, Editor-in-Chief; Pat Rossow, Service; Ron Prather, Survey and Editorial; Joyce Wiles, Directory and Index; Cal Winslow, Sports, was toward an outstanding Annual.

Heads, cuts, dummies, pictures, copy and diligent work—these are what make up an annual. The theme and color for the book were chosen. Then the work of carrying out these plans began. Dummies were made, pictures were taken and re-taken, indexing was done and copy, heads and cuts were written. There are some changes in this year's annual; for example, a reduced royalty section.

The staff was headed this year by Kathy Ellington, editor-in-chief, and William Sullivan, advisor.

Along with production of the annual the Lincolnian staff published the Dial Lincoln, student telephone directory. The editor for the year directory was Joyce Wiles.

This year the news staff was awarded the Columbia Scholastic Press Association Medalist award for the 25th consecutive year.

The staff also received a T B press project award. Since 1953 the News has won three awards on the press project, held annually by the National Tuberculosis Association and the Columbia Scholastic Press Association to inform high school students of the causes and dangers of T.B. and to promote good health.

Under the advisership of Joe Contris, the student journalists worked on Mondays and Wednesday after school laying out the paper's pages. On Friday mornings the paper was taken to the Tacoma Star to be published.

Lincoln Girls' Club newspaper is known as the Chit Chat. It originated seven years ago and was first known as the Girls' Club News.

The main purpose of the Chit Chat is to keep Lincoln girls informed on Girls' Club activities and projects. It also announces ways to earn points for Abe-Ettes. Working after school, the staff type stencils and mimeograph the paper.

Editor-in-Chief of the paper this year was Donna Boltinghouse. Art work was done by Sue Clausen. Typists and reporters are voluntary workers. They were Judy Hansen and Carolyn Eide. Advisor for the paper was Mrs. Jean Halsey.

This year's Quill and Scroll initiation was held at the home of Homer Post, former Lincoln News advisor. The new members initiated at midwinter were Dick McKay, Pat Rossow, Spencer Uhl, Rik Carlson, Paula Westholm, and Sharon Shaffer.

Membership is open to seniors with a "B" average or better, who have worked 100 hours on the Lincolnian or 100 inches published in the Lincoln News.

Quill and Scroll is an international society recognizing high school journalists, who display outstanding ability and work. Their main objective is to promote higher quality publication work and to learn to write correctly.

"Der Deutsch Dackel stands for friendship, and brings classes together as a team," said Mrs. Selma Muller, the originator of the paper.

The motto of the Dackel staff is: "The pen is mightier than the sword."

The Dackel is printed mainly in the English language, but it contains a few German phrases. Pen pal letters are the main contents of the paper. This paper goes to most of Mrs. Muller's German students, many Lincoln teachers, and has a large mailing list to people in other countries. They are distributed once a month.

The staff is made up of approximately 20 of Mrs. Muller's German students.

The editor was Polly Poyneer, and the assistant editor was Lavonna Spencer.

Belts, Rings, Vases, Styled In Artcraft

Capt. Rick Taylor, Donna Huff, Inez Black mold pottery

Although artcraft is a class it gives the students the opportunity to express themselves through original pieces of art work.

This creative class offers the students the chance to develop and discover skills in working with metal, leather, wood, clay, plastic and weaving.

Nine facets of artcraft are jewelry, leather work, sculpture, mosaics, pottery, blockprinting, weaving, wood carving, and enameling.

Students working on jewelry projects often make earrings, bracelets, belts, pins, and pendants. Some of the materials which are used are copper, brass, silver, stones, and plastic.

Pottery is a field where the students can use their imagination by making things for practical use or for decorative purposes and also get enjoyment from the process.

Mosaics and sculpture add a bit of fun and variety to the course also. In mosaics students have completed such jobs as coffee tables with a mosaic design completely covering the top, while still others were busy doing two color blockprints from wood and linoleum.

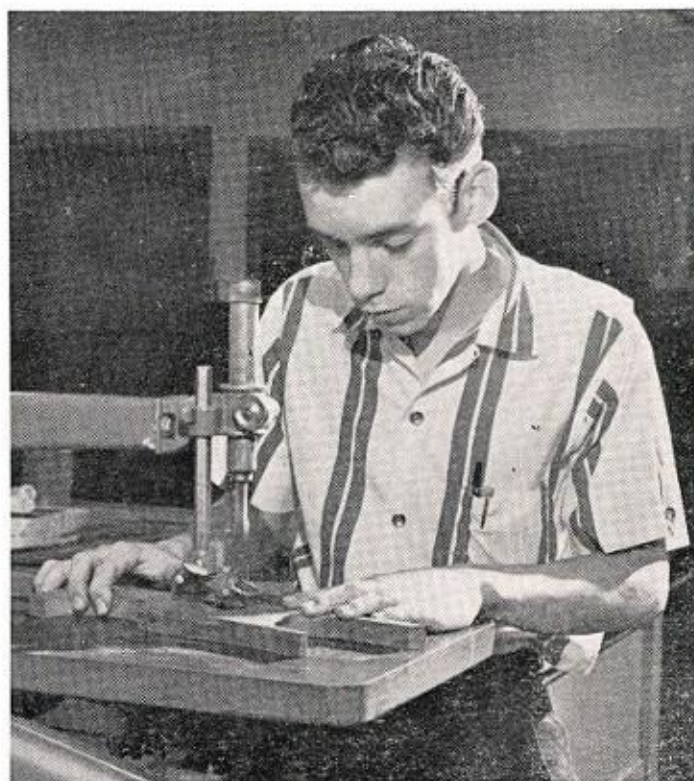

This year several students have made wooden spoons while others made various shaped bowls.

Though quite as common, some students enjoy doing leather work such as belts and purses, and still others enjoy working with the weaving equipment. Self-woven placemats are sometimes made by the girls.

Don Sheppard, artcraft teacher, shows the students new techniques for all of these interesting crafts.

"Onions In The Stew" Packed With Action

Claude, played by William Fagerholm, says to Joan, played by Karen Waner, "I don't like older women. How old are you?"

"Onions in the Stew", based on the book written by Betty McDonald, was put on as the Senior Class Play, under the direction of Bill Ochs.

The setting of the story is Vashon Island where the McDonalds have just moved from Seattle. One problem faced by Betty McDonald, played by Carolyn Eide, was making her husband Don, played by Jim Vincent, and two daughters, portrayed by Elaine Hardy and Karen Waner, find island life as rewarding as she did.

Ann, one of the daughters, had boy friend problems. Howard, played by Dick Price, lived on the island and Roger, played by Dick Franklin, lived in Seattle but during visits were constantly running into each other. Joannie also had a love problem in the form of Claude, played by William Fagerholm, whom she loved to ignore.

Breakdown after breakdown proves too much for the McDonald family, which leads to their decision to sell. After much thought and a visit from a buyer, the McDonalds realize they love their island home despite the many problems and shortcomings.

The rest of the cast included Fred Brown, Judy Shull, Marlys Johnson, Pat Forester, Carolyn Fields, Gary Huddleson, Ken Lawson, Dick Weber, Tom Spring, Toni Hall, Jim Duncan, Pam Mays, Claudette Gerken, Joey Hofer and Rita Kunsing. Ted Kerzie was the student director.

A Cappella Choir Travels Throughout State

Practice and performance were the words for the A Cappella Choir this year.

During the Christmas season they sang at Rhodes twice daily for six days, made Christmas broadcasts for radio stations KTAC and KTNT, and performed at the Christmas Vespers, their annual Christmas assembly.

On January 26, they performed at the Winter concert, on April 28, at the Pops concert and on May 24, at the Formal concert.

In February many choir members gave outstanding performances at the Western Washington Solo and Ensemble Contest. The Madrigal singers, the Girls' Ensemble, Marilyn Garl, and Jack Hirst received superior ratings. The Madrigals were chosen as one of the seven most outstanding talents.

In March the choir went to Auburn to participate in the Western Washington Music Educators District Contest. There they received a superior rating.

There are several small singing groups inside the choir. They are the Madrigal Singers, the Girls' Ensemble, the Boys' Quintet, and the Trio.

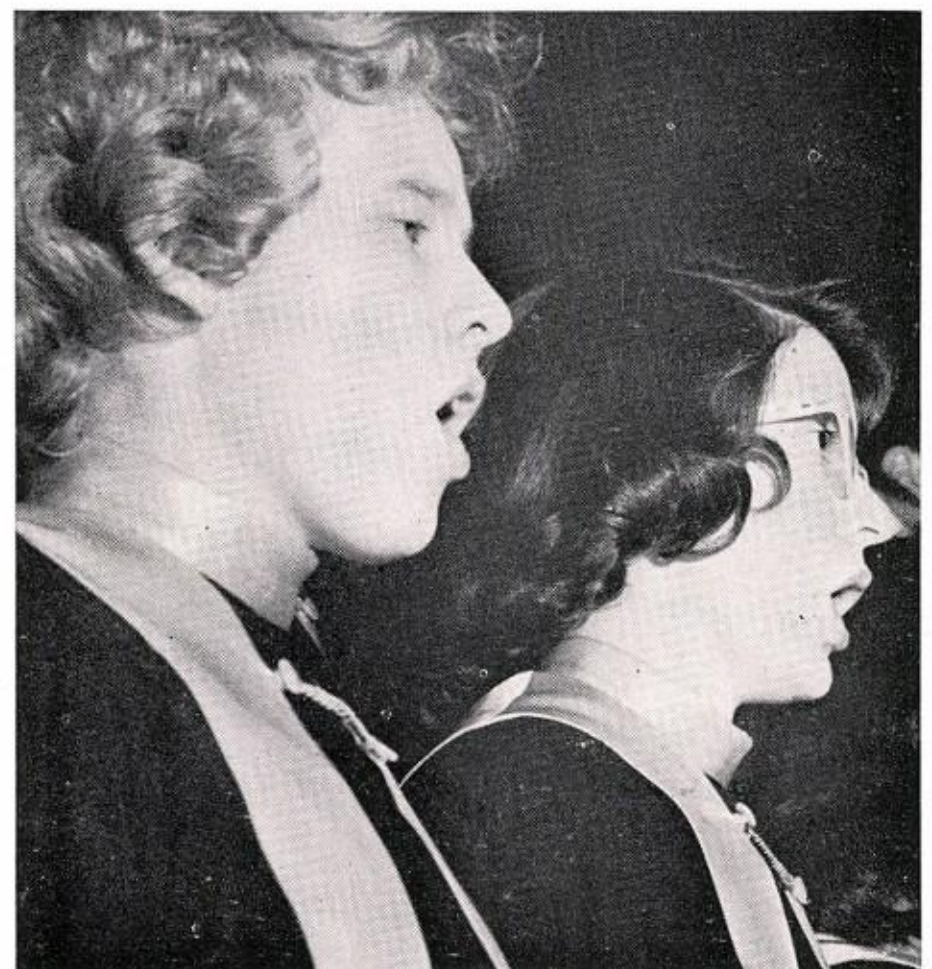

Choir officers are: president, Herb Clark; vice president, Jack Hirst; secretary, Cherie Shreeves; treasurer, Bev Norton; business manager, Glen Graham; historian, Marilyn Garl; robe custodians, Chuck Clark and Carol Murray. The librarians are Carol Winslow and Jeanetta Goldberg.

This year's topic for debate was: "Resolved that the United Nations should be significantly strengthened." Using this topic the club competed against White River, Sumner, Orting, Aquinas, Kent-Meridian, Bellarmine, Wilson, Stadium and Fife.

The highlight of the club's activities was entering the 28th Annual Statewide High School Debate Tournament, held at the University of Puget Sound, which attracted more than 1,000 students from 79 high schools.

Students competed for trophies in debate, impromptu speaking, interpretive reading and oratory. Lincolnites named in this category were Meredith Smyth, Charles Gibson and Kathy McDonald.

The president for the club this year was Charles Hough. The advisor was Mr. Robinson.

After the football season the dance band formed an "all city" group made up of the best dance musicians at Lincoln, Stadium and Wilson. A new library of arrangements helped to make it successful.

The dance band performed at a Stadium Pops Concert, Wilson Senior Ball, Lincoln Sophomore Dance, Wilson Sophomore Dance, Lincoln P.-T.A. Dance, and the U.S.O. at 13th and Fawcett.

The Marching Band began drill two weeks before school. The older members brushed up on their fundamentals and helped new members to learn theirs.

Starting with the Grid-Go-Round the group marched every morning at 7:30 and during class time up to the Turkey Day Game and with one exception performed at all home games that the weather permitted.

Out of this group two pep bands were formed. They played at all pep assemblies before home football games and basketball games.

The Marching Band performed at the Veterans Day Parade, Santa Claus, and Daffodil Parade.

This same group gave a half concert for the Kiwanis at the Winthrop Hotel in the fall and assisted the choir at the Christmas Vespers concert. They played at the Winter concert January 27. The entire group and several ensemble and soloists from the main group competed at the solo and small ensemble contest on February 25. They received many superior ratings. Also they entered the orchestra contest on March 25 at Auburn and received a superior rating. They were the only orchestra to receive all superior ratings from the three judges. Grid Awards Given To Anderson, Pazaruski

Top: Co-captains Cliff Hay, Donnell Washington.
Bottom: Inspirational Player, Andy Pazaruski; Most Valuable Player, Granville Anderson.

The 1960 Lincoln eleven completed its season with a 6-3-0 record. The Abes captured the City League crown with an unblemished 3-0 record. They also won the Grid-Go-Round and finished second in the Capital League, behind only Olympia and West Bremerton, both of whom were rated high in the state's top ten. The Thanksgiving Day Game proved to be the highlight of the season. Showing an unstoppable rushing attack, plus a surprising passing assault, the Abes mauled the Wilson Rams, 35-26, breaking the all-time Turkey Day scoring record during the attack. While at times the defense was not at its best, most of Wilson's points came against Lincoln reserves.

After winning the Grid-Go-Round and being set back by an upset-minded Wilson team in the King's X game, the Abes came back to annihilate Bellarmine, 48-6, setting a City League scoring record. Following this they rolled over East Bremerton, 27-6, and beat Stadium, 20-6. They were then set back by the powerful Olympia and West Bremerton teams. The one bright spot of the Olympia game was Anderson's 64-yard kickoff return. Lincoln came back, however, with a revenge victory over Wilson, 14-6, and a decisive win from Aberdeen, 34-0. This was perhaps the Abe's best all-around game, and their only shutout. Lincoln finished the season without being shut out once.

Joining an elite group of former Lincoln greats, Granny Anderson tied the Lincoln individual season scoring record. The fleet halfback scored 96 points.

While in the arms of Wilson tacklers, Abe halfback Jim Morrow struggles toward the goal line. Lincoln tackle Andy Davis looks on.

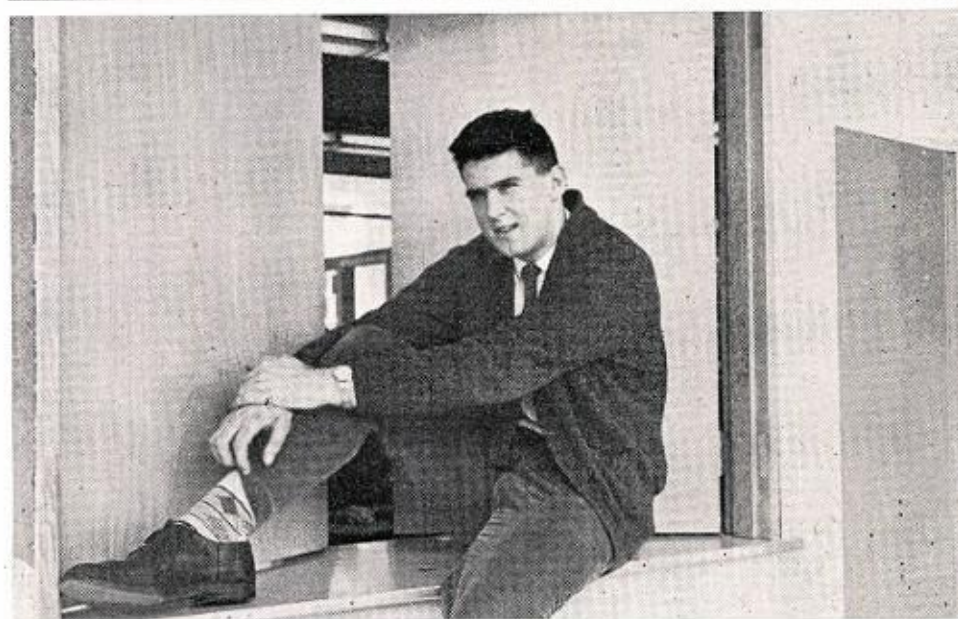

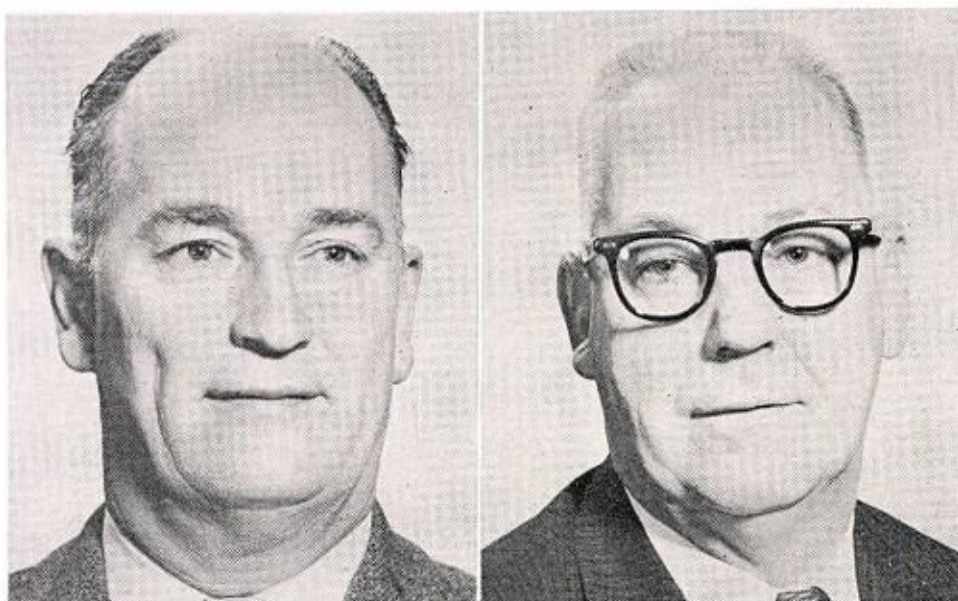

Team Picks Hay, Washington, Co-Captains

He led the City and Capital Leagues in scoring, and he was among the leaders in rushing. Undoubtedly, he would have broken the scoring record except that he was injured in the Thanksgiving Day game. He remained on the bench most of the game, while his teammates scored at will against the Wilson Rams.

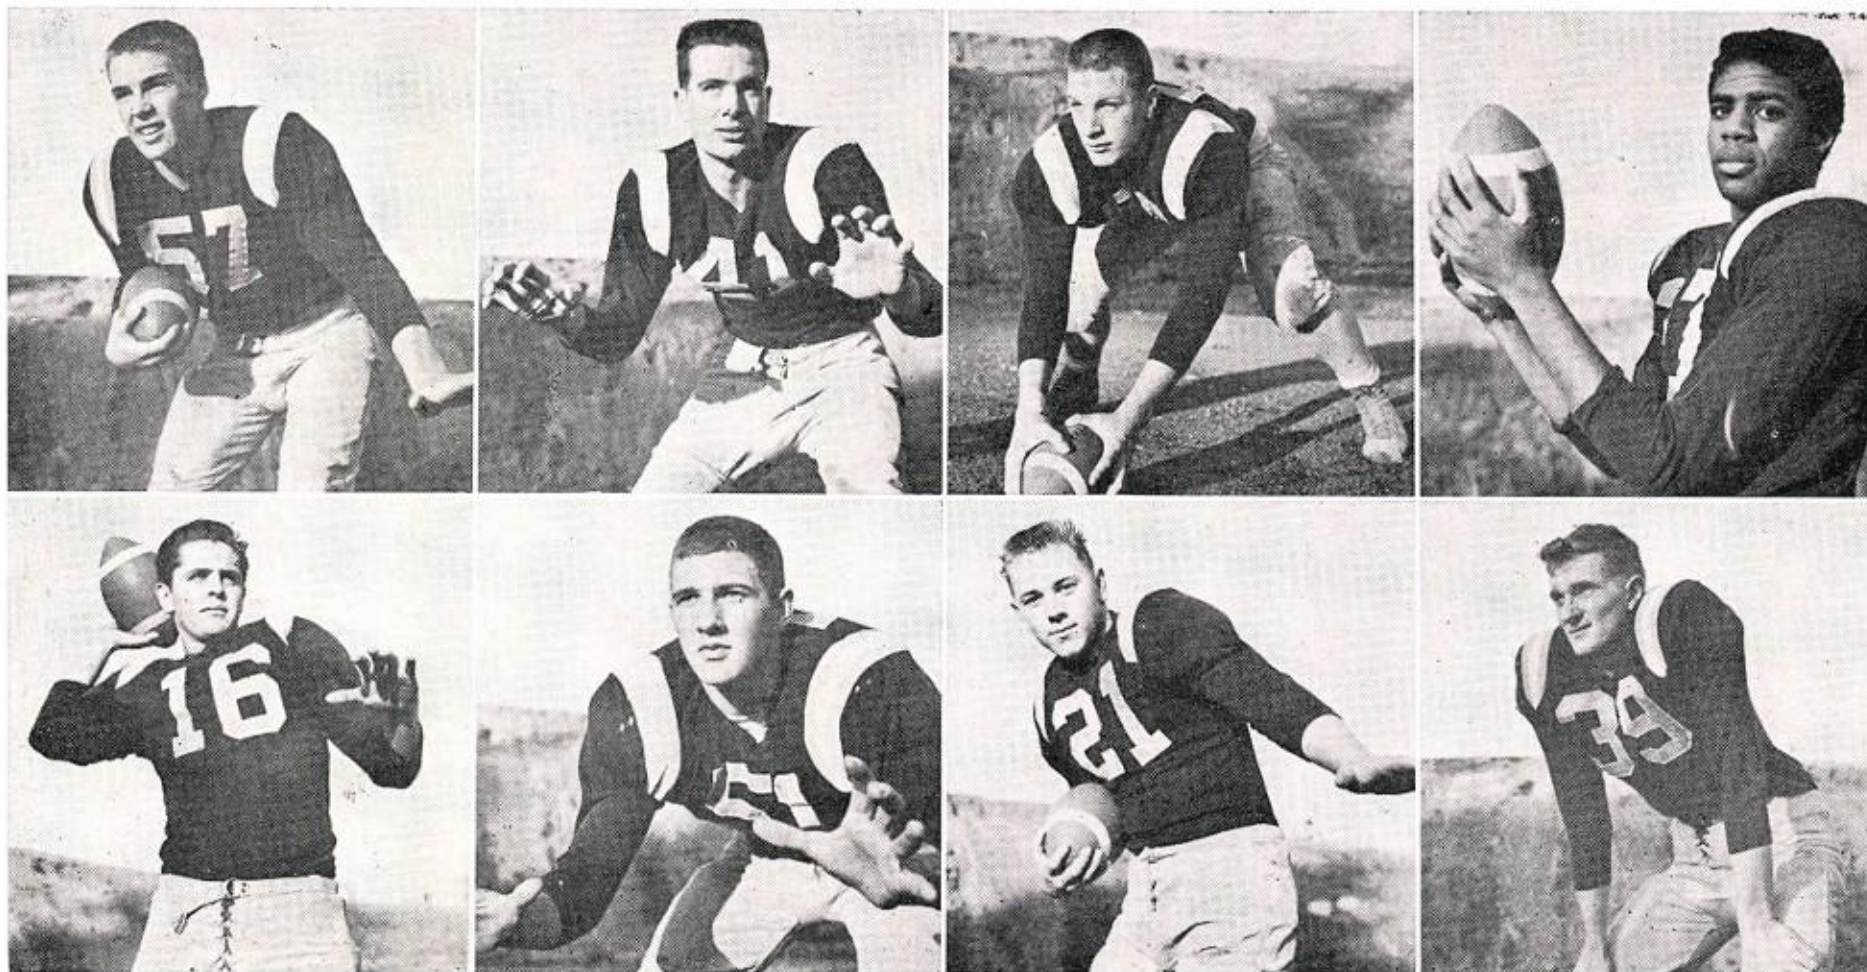

After a very successful sophomore season, Dave Williams appears to be the most promising prospect for the future. In the Turkey Day game, Dave set the record for individual scoring by tallying 23 points. Williams will be joined in the next two years by another sophomore sensation, Don Hager. Hager seems to have the quarterbacking job sewed up for a while to come. While excelling in playcalling, Hager passed only sparingly, but when he did throw he was on target. These two sophomores, plus powerhouse fullback Larry Scott, a junior, make Lincoln's prospects for the future look exciting.

The Lincoln Abes also dominated the all-city team. The following Abes were chosen: Donnell Washington, end; Clayton Buckholtz, tackle; Andy Pazaruski, center; Clic Hay, guard; Granny Anderson, halfback; and Larry Scott, fullback.

Varsity letter winners were Granny Anderson, Bob Booth, Clayton Buckholtz, Andy Davis, Larry Ganwich, Ted Green, Don Hager, co-captain Cliff Hay, Dennis Huggins, Joel Medlicott, Jim Morrow, Andy Pazaruski, Jim Sonn, co-captain Donnell Washington, Steve Whitaker, Dave Williams, and Walt Wooten.

Banquet At Steves Tops Off Football Season

Winding up the 1960 football season, Lincoln's city championship team was given a banquet by the Lincoln Lions. The team went to Steve's in South Tacoma and filled their stomachs to the brim with a delicious smorgasbord dinner. The boys went home full, and the cooks went home tired.

The evening was highlighted by the announcement of the award winners, who were chosen by the team earlier in the week. No one was surprised when Granville Anderson was chosen most valuable player. This award topped off a highly successful season for Lincoln's all-city half-back. Andy Pazaruski, because of his tremendous drive, hustle and leadership, was given the inspirational award. The selection of team co-captains proved unusual. The team selected the same boys that Coach Norm Mayer had selected before the season began: Donnell Washington and Cliff Hay. These two stalwarts of the Lincoln line had proven their value game after game. They were excellent representatives of Lincoln both on and off the field.

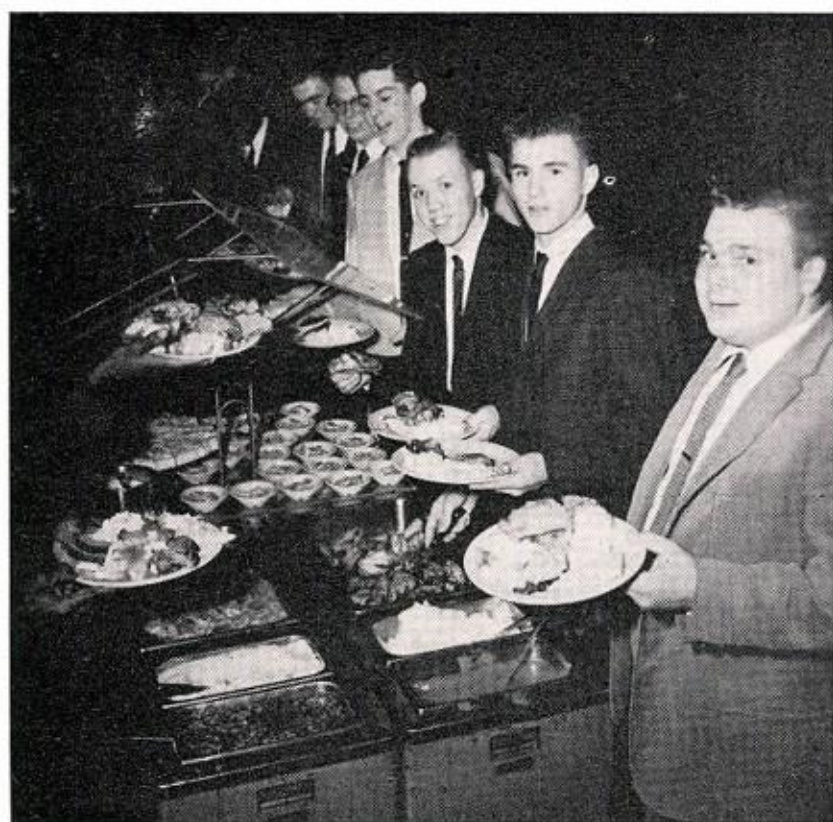

After the team members were awarded their letters, several guest speakers addressed them. Pat Claridge, star end of the Rose Bowl Champion Washington Huskies, talked to the boys and answered any questions they had about the Washington team or the Rose Bowl game.

With appreciation for his hard work, the boys gave Mr. Mayer several gifts and then went home with only fond memories remaining of the 1960 football season.

J.V.'s Build For Next Year's Varsity

Tallying a record of four wins, two losses Lincoln's reserve football team had a well-spent year of important experience, according to Coach Oliver Magnuson.

"We worked well together," said the coach. "Ambition was plentiful and the spirit was high." The reserves' main objective is preparation for the move to next year's varsity squad. The reserve team is a valuable group, the actual backbone of the Varsity.

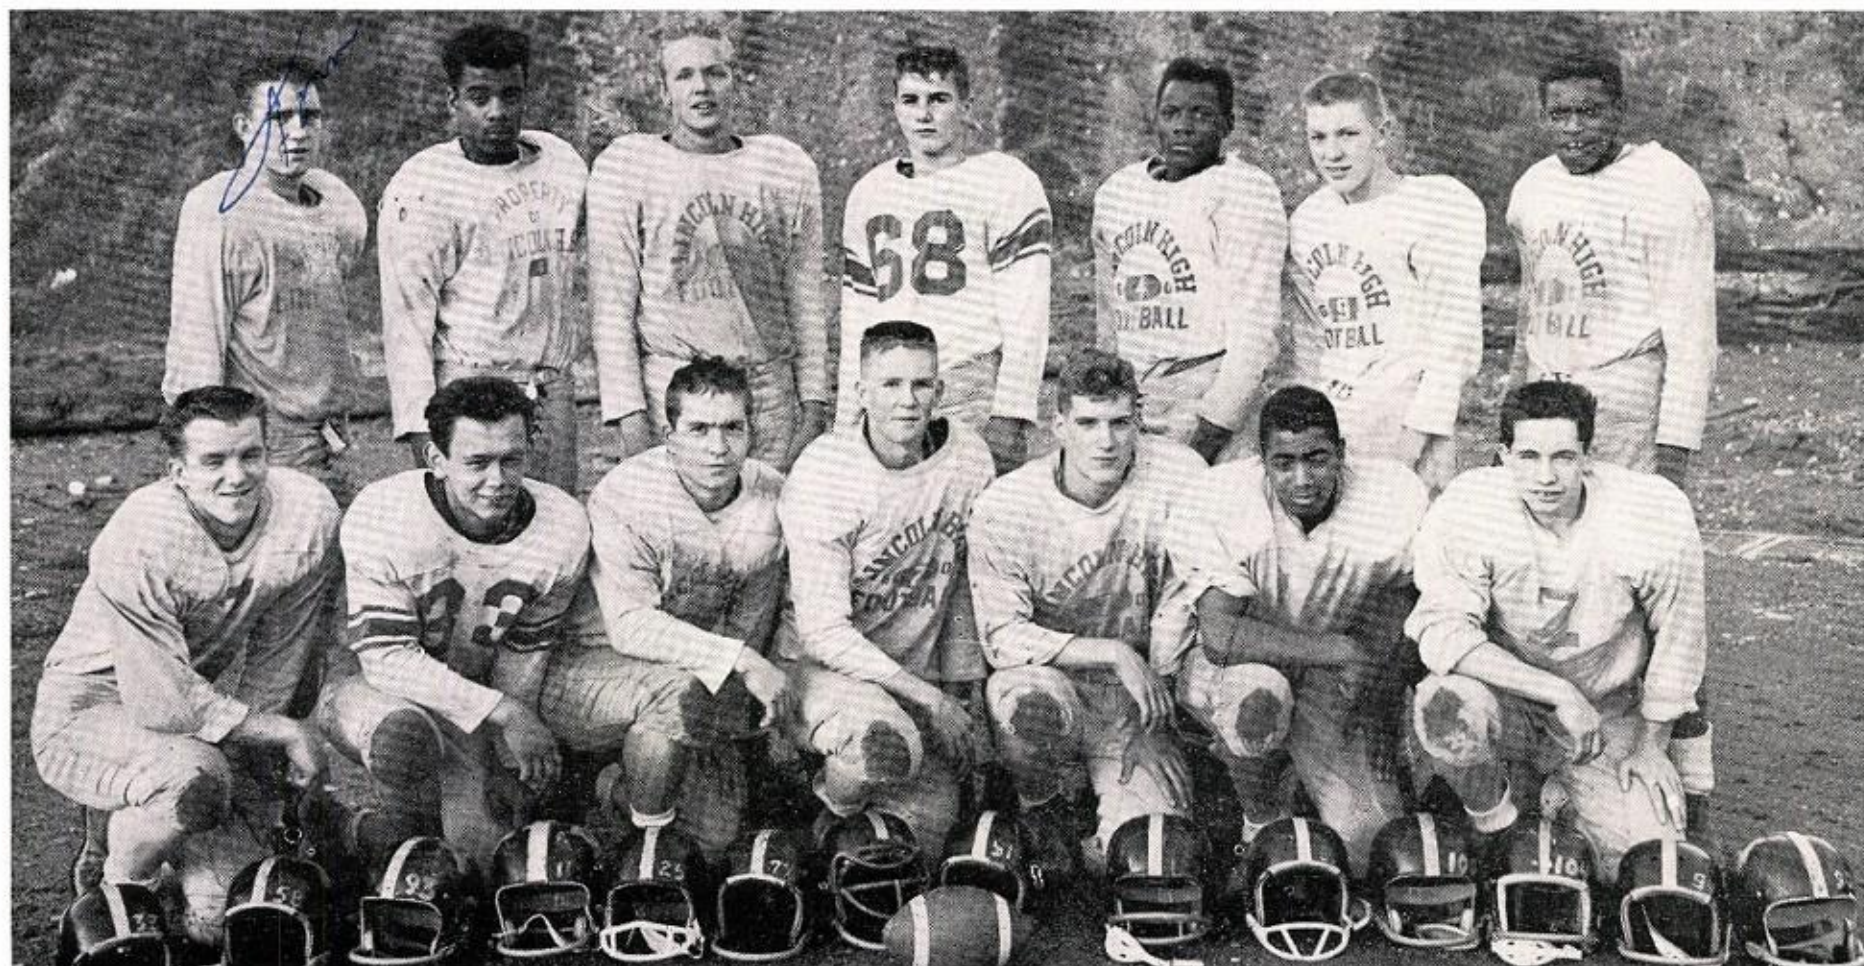

The three most outstanding players for the squad were sophomore Bill Vodarski, junior Denson Harris and senior Harold Botley. The reserves lost "Wild Bill" for their last two games when his performance ability enabled him to move up with the varsity men. Denson Harris received the praise of Coach Magnuson with the title of "... our best all-around running block." Although seniors are seldom found on the reserve squad, "Hi-Hat" Harold Botley was a great asset to the team.

"The Franklin Pierce win was undoubtedly the most outstanding and well executed game we played," stated mentor Magnuson. The squad, however, came out way on top in the Clover Park clash.

The players to look for on next year's varsity starting eleven are Bill Smith, Dick Olson, Alan Unruh and Randy Burton. Dan Aquirra was injured early in the season but we're sure he will return stronger than ever next year.

Sophs Learn Teamwork Under Gale, Gilmur

After a shaky start the 1960 sophomore football team settled down, winning two of their last three games. Coach Gary Gale said that the slow start was probably due to the lack of players with game experience. He said that after the team played a few games they began working as a unit and their performances improved greatly.

The baby Abes lost their first three games to Wilson, Clover Park and Bellarmine, but then with a fourth quarter burst they pounded the Stadium sophomores 27-7. Showing a good defense, the Abe team lost a close one to Puyallup, 7-0. The outstanding game of the season came on November 7, when the sophs traveled to Franklin Pierce and defeated the Cardinals 13-0. Halfback Ed Gravitt plunged through the line for the first score and passed to end Bob Regland for the final tally.

Gravitt was chosen team captain and named most valuable player. Coach Gale said that Gravitt was the offensive standout all season. Naming other standouts, Gale called guard Tom Cummings the best offensive lineman and named Dick Sandee and Ray Kleven the outstanding defenders.

Coaches Gale and Chuck Gilmur both stressed the importance of the sophomore team, saying that it gives boys who have never played football the opportunity to develop varsity ability. The coaches said that several graduates of the sophomore team usually make the varsity. Six of the starters on this year's varsity played on the sophomore team.

Lincoln Varsity Claims Hoop-Go-Round

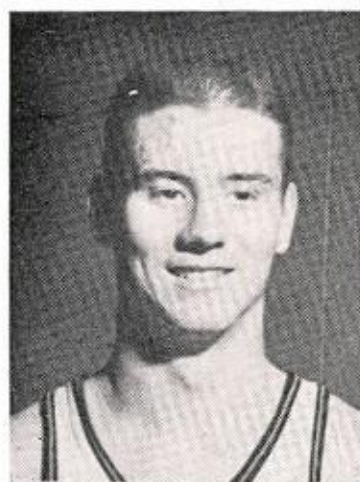

Dave Williams leaps high for ball to open game with West Bremerton. Abes' Drew Paris and Bill Watson wait for tip.

The 1960-61 team proved to be one of the scrappiest teams ever coached by Gilmur. Although their won-lost record was 9-11, many games went right down to the wire before they were decided. Showing an abundance of hustle and desire, the Lincoln team never quit trying. This was shown in one of the games with the city champs, Stadium. The outmanned Lincoln squad refused to be awed by Stadium's all-stater, Charlie Williams, and with Captain Mike Endicott scoring twenty-two points, Lincoln played perhaps their best basketball of the season, only to lose in the final seconds.

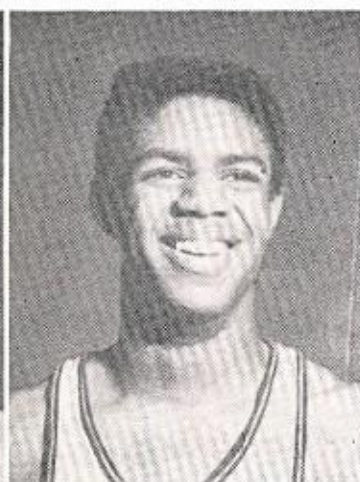

The season was highlighted by Lincoln's upset win in the Hoop-Go-Round. The fighting Abes stunned a capacity crowd at UPS fieldhouse by dethroning the Stadium Tigers who had won the seven previous Hoop-Go-Round championships. The Abes easily eliminated Bellarmine in the first contest and then overpowered Stadium in the title tilt. Lincoln's attack was led by center Bill Watson who poured in twenty points in the two contests. Dave Williams also scored well and played a terrific game on the boards. Mike Endicott directed the team and stood out on defense. When the game ended, frenzied Lincoln students rushed onto the floor. The team carried Coach Gilmur off the floor.

Another highlight of the season came when Lincoln's husky center, Bill Watson, broke the all-time Abe single game scoring record by pouring in twenty-nine points to lead the Abes to a victory over Bellarmine.

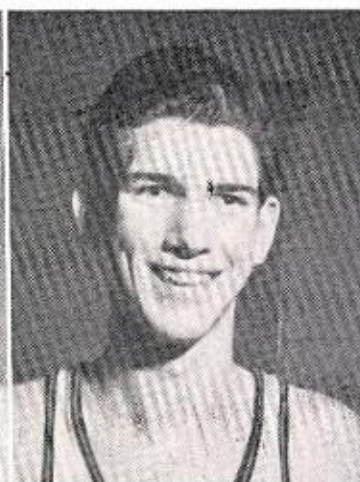

Endicott proved to be the most valuable member of the team. Leading the team in scoring, being an able playmaker, and carrying the duties of captain, he was awarded the inspirational trophy. Endicott was the first Lincoln basketball player ever to be chosen team captain two years in succession. Mike was also elected to the all-city high school basketball team. Center Bill Watson and sophomore forward Dave Williams were chosen to the second team.

Sophomores Dominate Reserve Hoop Squad

"Our win-loss record, (6-13)," stated Coach Gary Gale, "doesn't by any means describe the quality of the team. We beat Wilson, probably our biggest contender, two out of three games. We started the season fairly slow, flamed through the middle, and then slacked off in the end."

Undoubtedly the Abe's best and most outstanding game was against Wilson when they won in sudden-death overtime 50 to 49.

The most outstanding player, highest scorer, and best rebounder of the team was Gary Meisenburg. According to the coaches, sophomore Meisenburg has the "greatest potential" and will certainly be one of the leaders of the Varsity squad next year. Among the other memorable players were sophomore Bill Zindt, a lad who had "never played before," the "very quick" sophomore Harry Boggs, and sophomore Bob Martinson, the "finest shot on the team." "The loss of sophomore Les Morse to Tahoma will be felt," added Coach Gale.

Yearlings Look To Brighter Future

Coach Ed Bowman's sophomore Blacks finished the season with a record of two wins and nine losses.

The team captain, Tom Jamison, proved to be the outstanding player. He was the high scorer of the team and scored 19 points in one game.

Boys seeing the most action were Jamison, Bill Faulk, Steve Whitbeck, Dennis Blair, Dennis Legas, Rick Carlson, and Nels Anderson. Whitbeck and Jamison were the most consistent players and are the outstanding future prospects.

The best efforts of the season came against the Clover Park Greens, who fell 43-36, and the Lincoln Golds, who were defeated in a defensive struggle, 25-19.

The sophomore Golds, coached by Norm Mayer, duplicated the record of the Blacks, 2 wins and 9 losses.

"The poor record," he said, "might be attributed to the number of sophomores on the varsity and reserve squads. They took the best material and the sophomore teams were left shorthanded."

The team's best efforts were its two victories, one against the Wilson sophs and the other against the Lincoln Blacks.

"We always enjoy beating Wilson," said Mayer, "and the game with the Blacks is a big one."

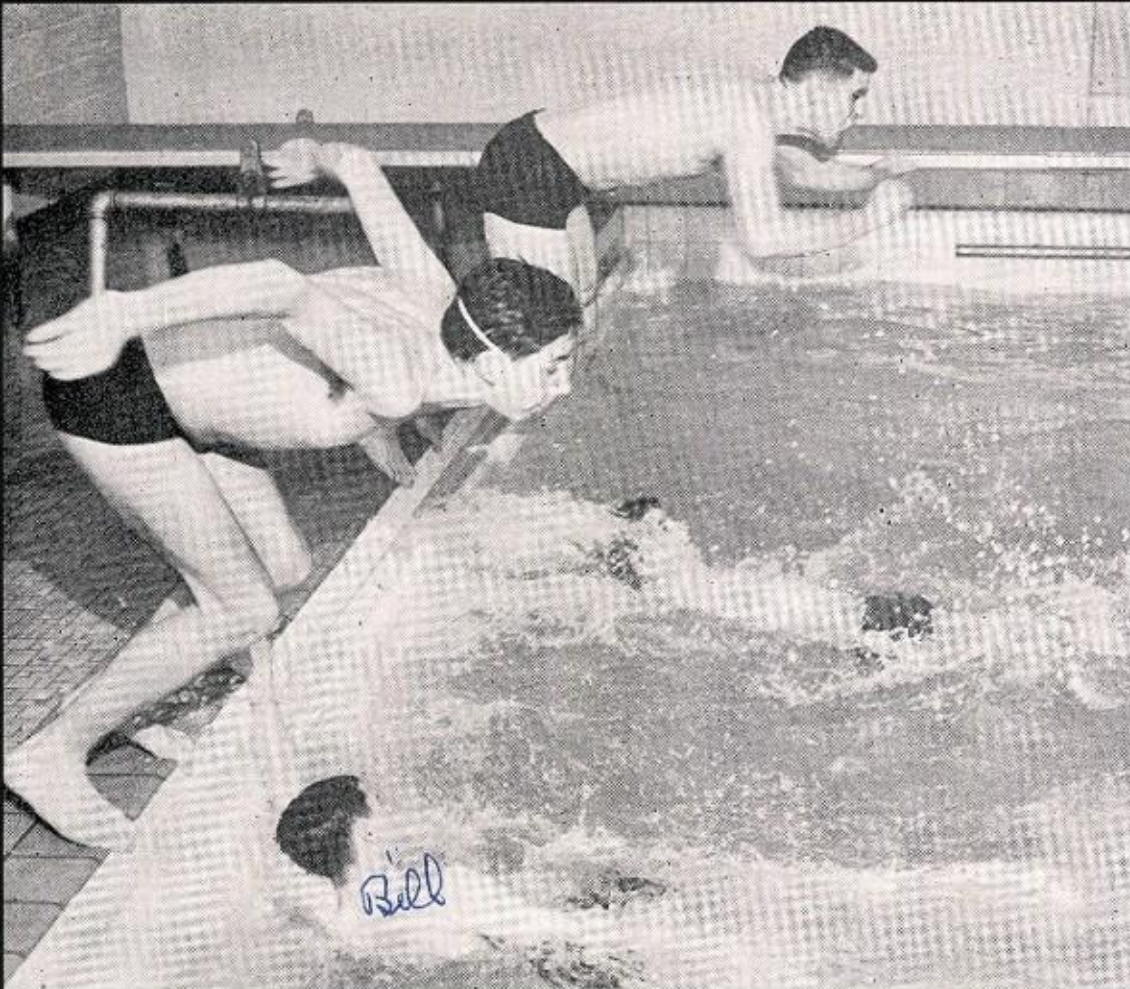

Coach Mayer added that the boys never stopped hustling despite their poor record. He recalled that today's sophs make tomorrow's Varsity.

Co-captains Jim Daniels and Howard Bannworth led the 1960-61 Abe swimmers to a fairly successful season. The Abes finished third in the Capital League and third in the City League. In both cases Lincoln followed only Wilson and Stadium. Wilson won the state swimming meet and Stadium finished third. The Abes came in fourteenth at the state meet which was held at the University of Washington. Bill Neff placed sixth in the butterfly competition and Jim Daniels finished sixth in the 200-yard individual medley in the state meet.

"Lincoln's showing at the state meet was better than it sounded," said Coach Bob Nichols. "We had eight boys place ninth or better in fields of thirty-five or forty," Nichols added.

Two new school records were set during the season. Jim Daniels established a new mark in the 200-yard individual medley. Howard Bannworth broke the record in the 400-yard freestyle. Bill Neff missed a record by two-tenths of a second.

At the close of the season the team elected senior Bill Neff inspirational award winner. Juniors Gary Ferguson and Bill Marcy were chosen co-captains to lead the team next year.

Lettermen Work For Participation In Sports

Earning money for the Lettermen's Club, Andy Pazaruski and Bob Booth sell Lincoln portfolios to juniors Charl Gillen and Sheila Smith

Working for good sportsmanship, regulating the wearing of athletic sweaters, and contributing to funds at Lincoln are the objectives of the Lettermen's Club. These objectives provided a busy year for the Lettermen. Other aims of the club were to encourage boys to turn out for sports and to keep a sportsmanlike atmosphere at all the games.

Lettermen's Club was the source of Little Abner candidates. The boys selected by the Lincoln Letter Lassies were Mike Endicott, Joel Medlicott, Andy Pazaruski and Cliff Hay. The Lettermen's Club chose four girls from L. L. L. to vie for Daisy Mae. They were Karen Waner, Jean Urlacher, Wendy Thornley and Patty Jo Clifford.

The winners were presented at the L. L. L. dance, the "Hillbilly Hop." Jean Urlacher was chosen Daisy Mae and Mike Endicott was chosen Little Abner.

The Lettermen's Club also sold Lincoln portfolios, sponsored the Swimming Club, and contributed to the Red Cross. Any money left over was given to needy funds at Lincoln.

Requirements for Lettermen's Club are one varsity letter or two reserve letters in the same sport. These requirements must be enforced at all times to ensure that only qualified lettermen wear letters.

Holding the gavel this year was Bob Booth. He was assisted by Andy Pazaruski. Donnell Washington took care of finances and club records, while Bill Watson kept the meetings orderly.

Lincoln Cindermen

Coach Joe Widman has high hopes for his cindermen this spring. The Abe track team has won five of its first six meets. A host of returning lettermen from last year's strong team gave Lincoln a good chance of winning the city meet May 5.

The strength of this year's team is found with its distance men, its hurdlers, and its relay teams. Co-captains John Hanson and Dean Kalivas lead the distance men. Hanson competes in the mile run and Kalivas in the 880. Sophomore Dave Williams is the outstanding hurdler. Lincoln's strong men, Larry Ganwich and Andy Pazaruski, have been winning regularly in the shot and discus events.

One of Coach Widman's most pleasant problems has been finding where to use Dave Williams. The talented sophomore from Gault Junior High is the top performer in the high hurdles, the low hurdles, the shot put, the broad jump, and the 880-yard relay team. In the competition so far this season Williams is undefeated.

"Being a member of the track team does more than build up a boy physically," said Coach Widman. "It teaches him to work by himself and to rely on himself. He also learns to work with teammates and the fundamental values of good sportsmanship."

Playing between rainstorms, the varsity baseball team has managed to play only five games thus far in the 1961 season. The team has won four of its five starts, while losing only to Wilson by the score of 1-0. In the other games the Abes beat West Bremerton twice and defeated City League rivals Stadium and Bellarmine.

The team is looking forward to the remaining games and a shot at the city crown. Coach John Fadness thinks its going to be hard to keep on winning, however, because of the three weeks of rain. He explained that it is almost impossible to keep the boys in shape with no games.

The battery is the strong spot of the team. Pitchers Steve Whitaker and Chuck Spenser team up with catcher Bob Osness to form a combination that is hard to beat.

Six lettermen are back from last year's squad. They are first baseman Bill Watson, catcher Bob Osness, second sacker Bob Gagnon, outfielder Mike Endicott, and pitchers Spenser and Whitaker. Players up from last year's strong reserve team are Spenser Uhl, Tom Adams, Carl Vaught, Steve Bibleheimer, and Gene Rasmussen.

Junior Varsity Finishes Season Unbeaten

Led by pitching star Bob Martinson, the junior varsity baseball team is unbeaten so far this season. Martinson has won four of his team's eight victories, allowing only 0.39 runs per game. He is also leading the reserves in hitting, with a .529 average.

Other top performers, according to coach Jack Murphy, are first baseman Earl Davis, outfielder Rich Horton, pitcher Bob Dutton, and shortstop Leslie Morse. He added that Bill Zindt and Ed Gravitt also deserve mention.

Murphy said the fine record is due to depth and desire. Since all members of the squad are either sophomores or juniors, it appears that Lincoln will continue to have fine baseball teams in the future.

Gary Grip Leads Golfers To Early Victories

Under the guidance of Coach Norm Mayer, this year's golf team has gotten off to a flying start, winning six of nine. Gary Grip is the number one man on the team, as he was last year and the year before. Junior Jay Harrington is holding down the second spot. Senior Nick Worth, in his first year on the team, is showing well in the third position. Junior Gary Wilson has earned the fourth spot, while another senior, Dick Pratt, rounds out the starting five as the number five man. The standout reserve is Mark Johnson, who has been giving the starters a battle all season.

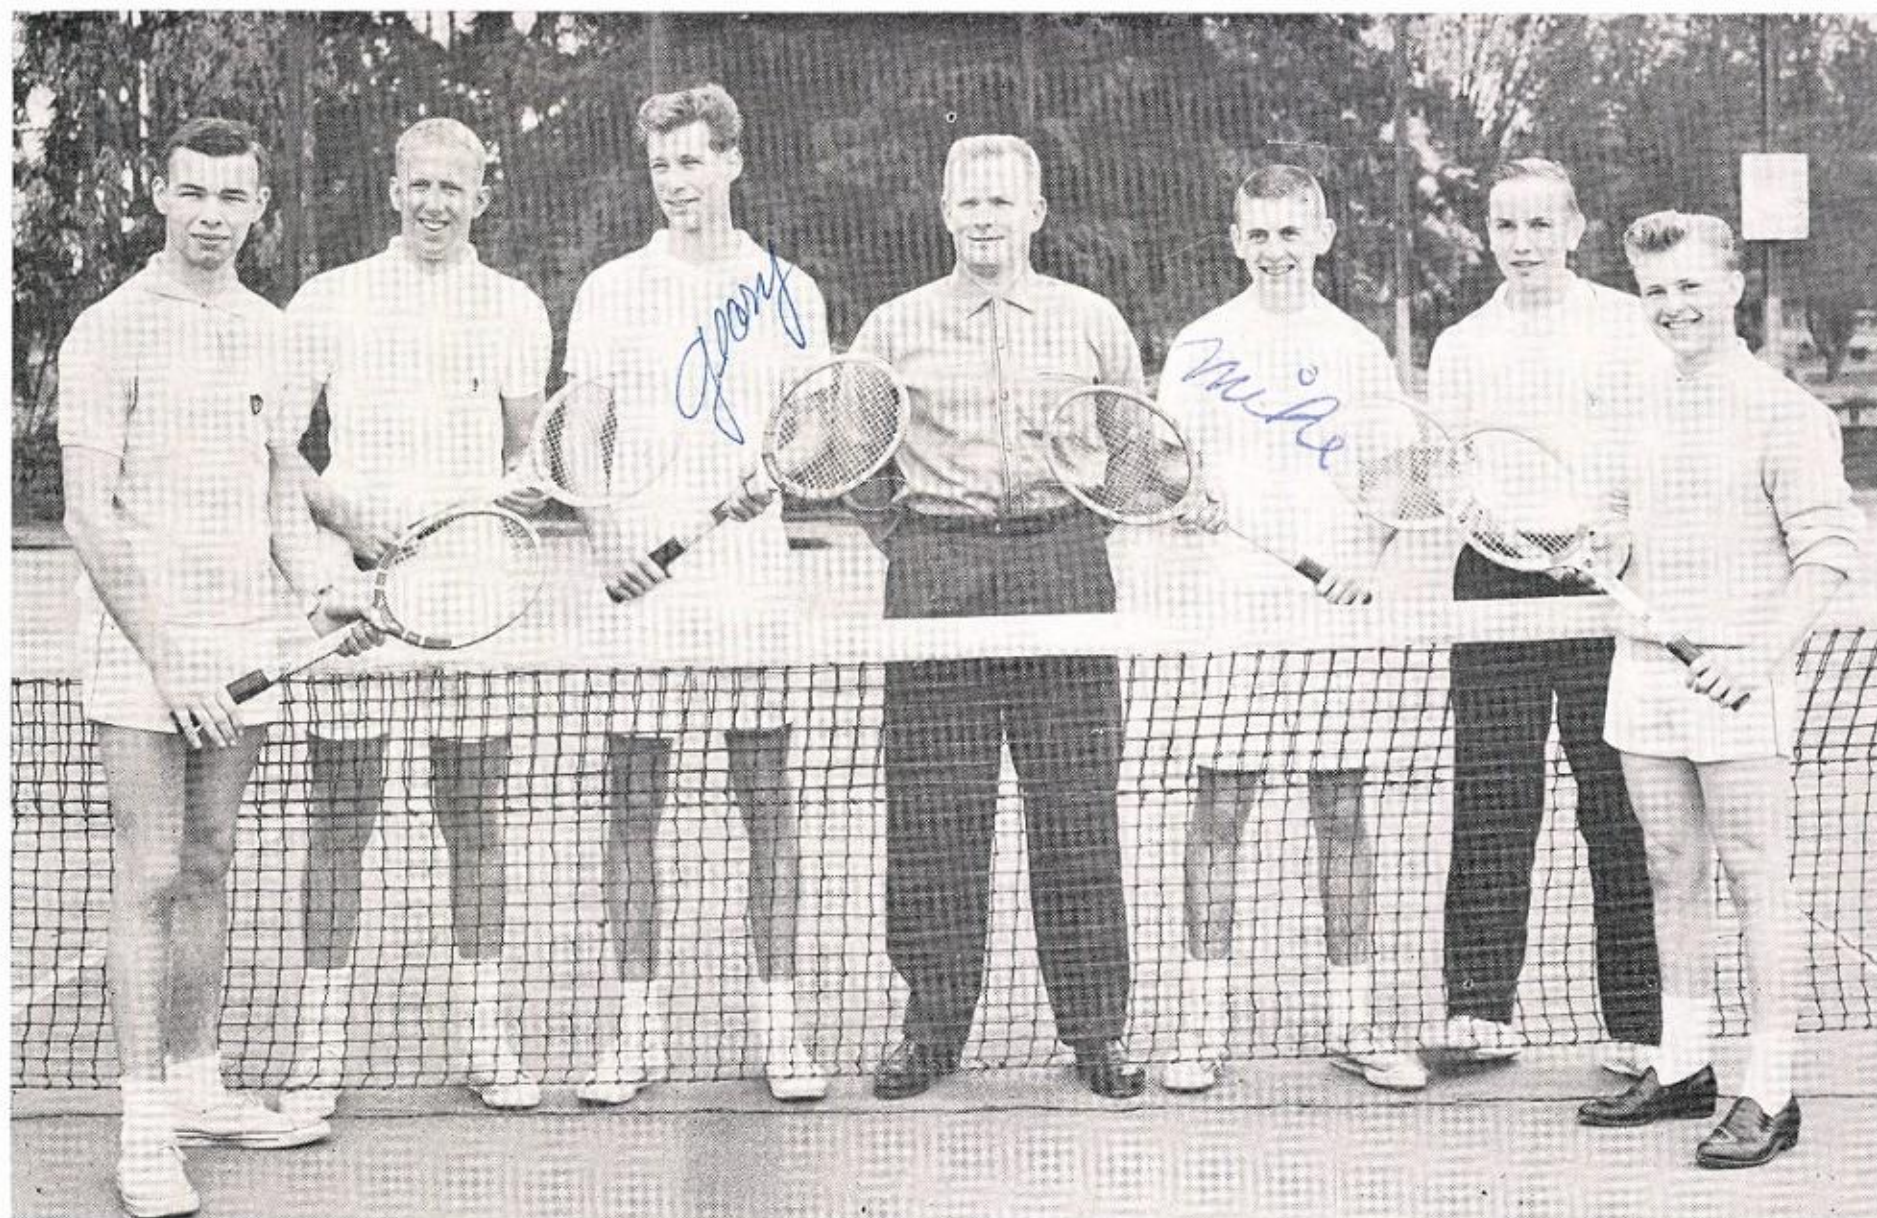

Mr. Mayer is running the team on the challenge system. When a player wants to move up a position, he may challenge the teammate directly ahead of him to a match. Challenging may be done at any practice session. This year the team is practicing at the Allenmore course.

"The challenge system keeps the boys hustling and boosts team morale," said Coach Mayer.

While losing to Wilson, Aberdeen and Olympia, the Abes have defeated Stadium, Bellarmine, Clover Park, West Bremerton, East Bremerton and Olympia. They stand second in the City and Capital Leagues.

Mellor Guides Netmen For Third Year

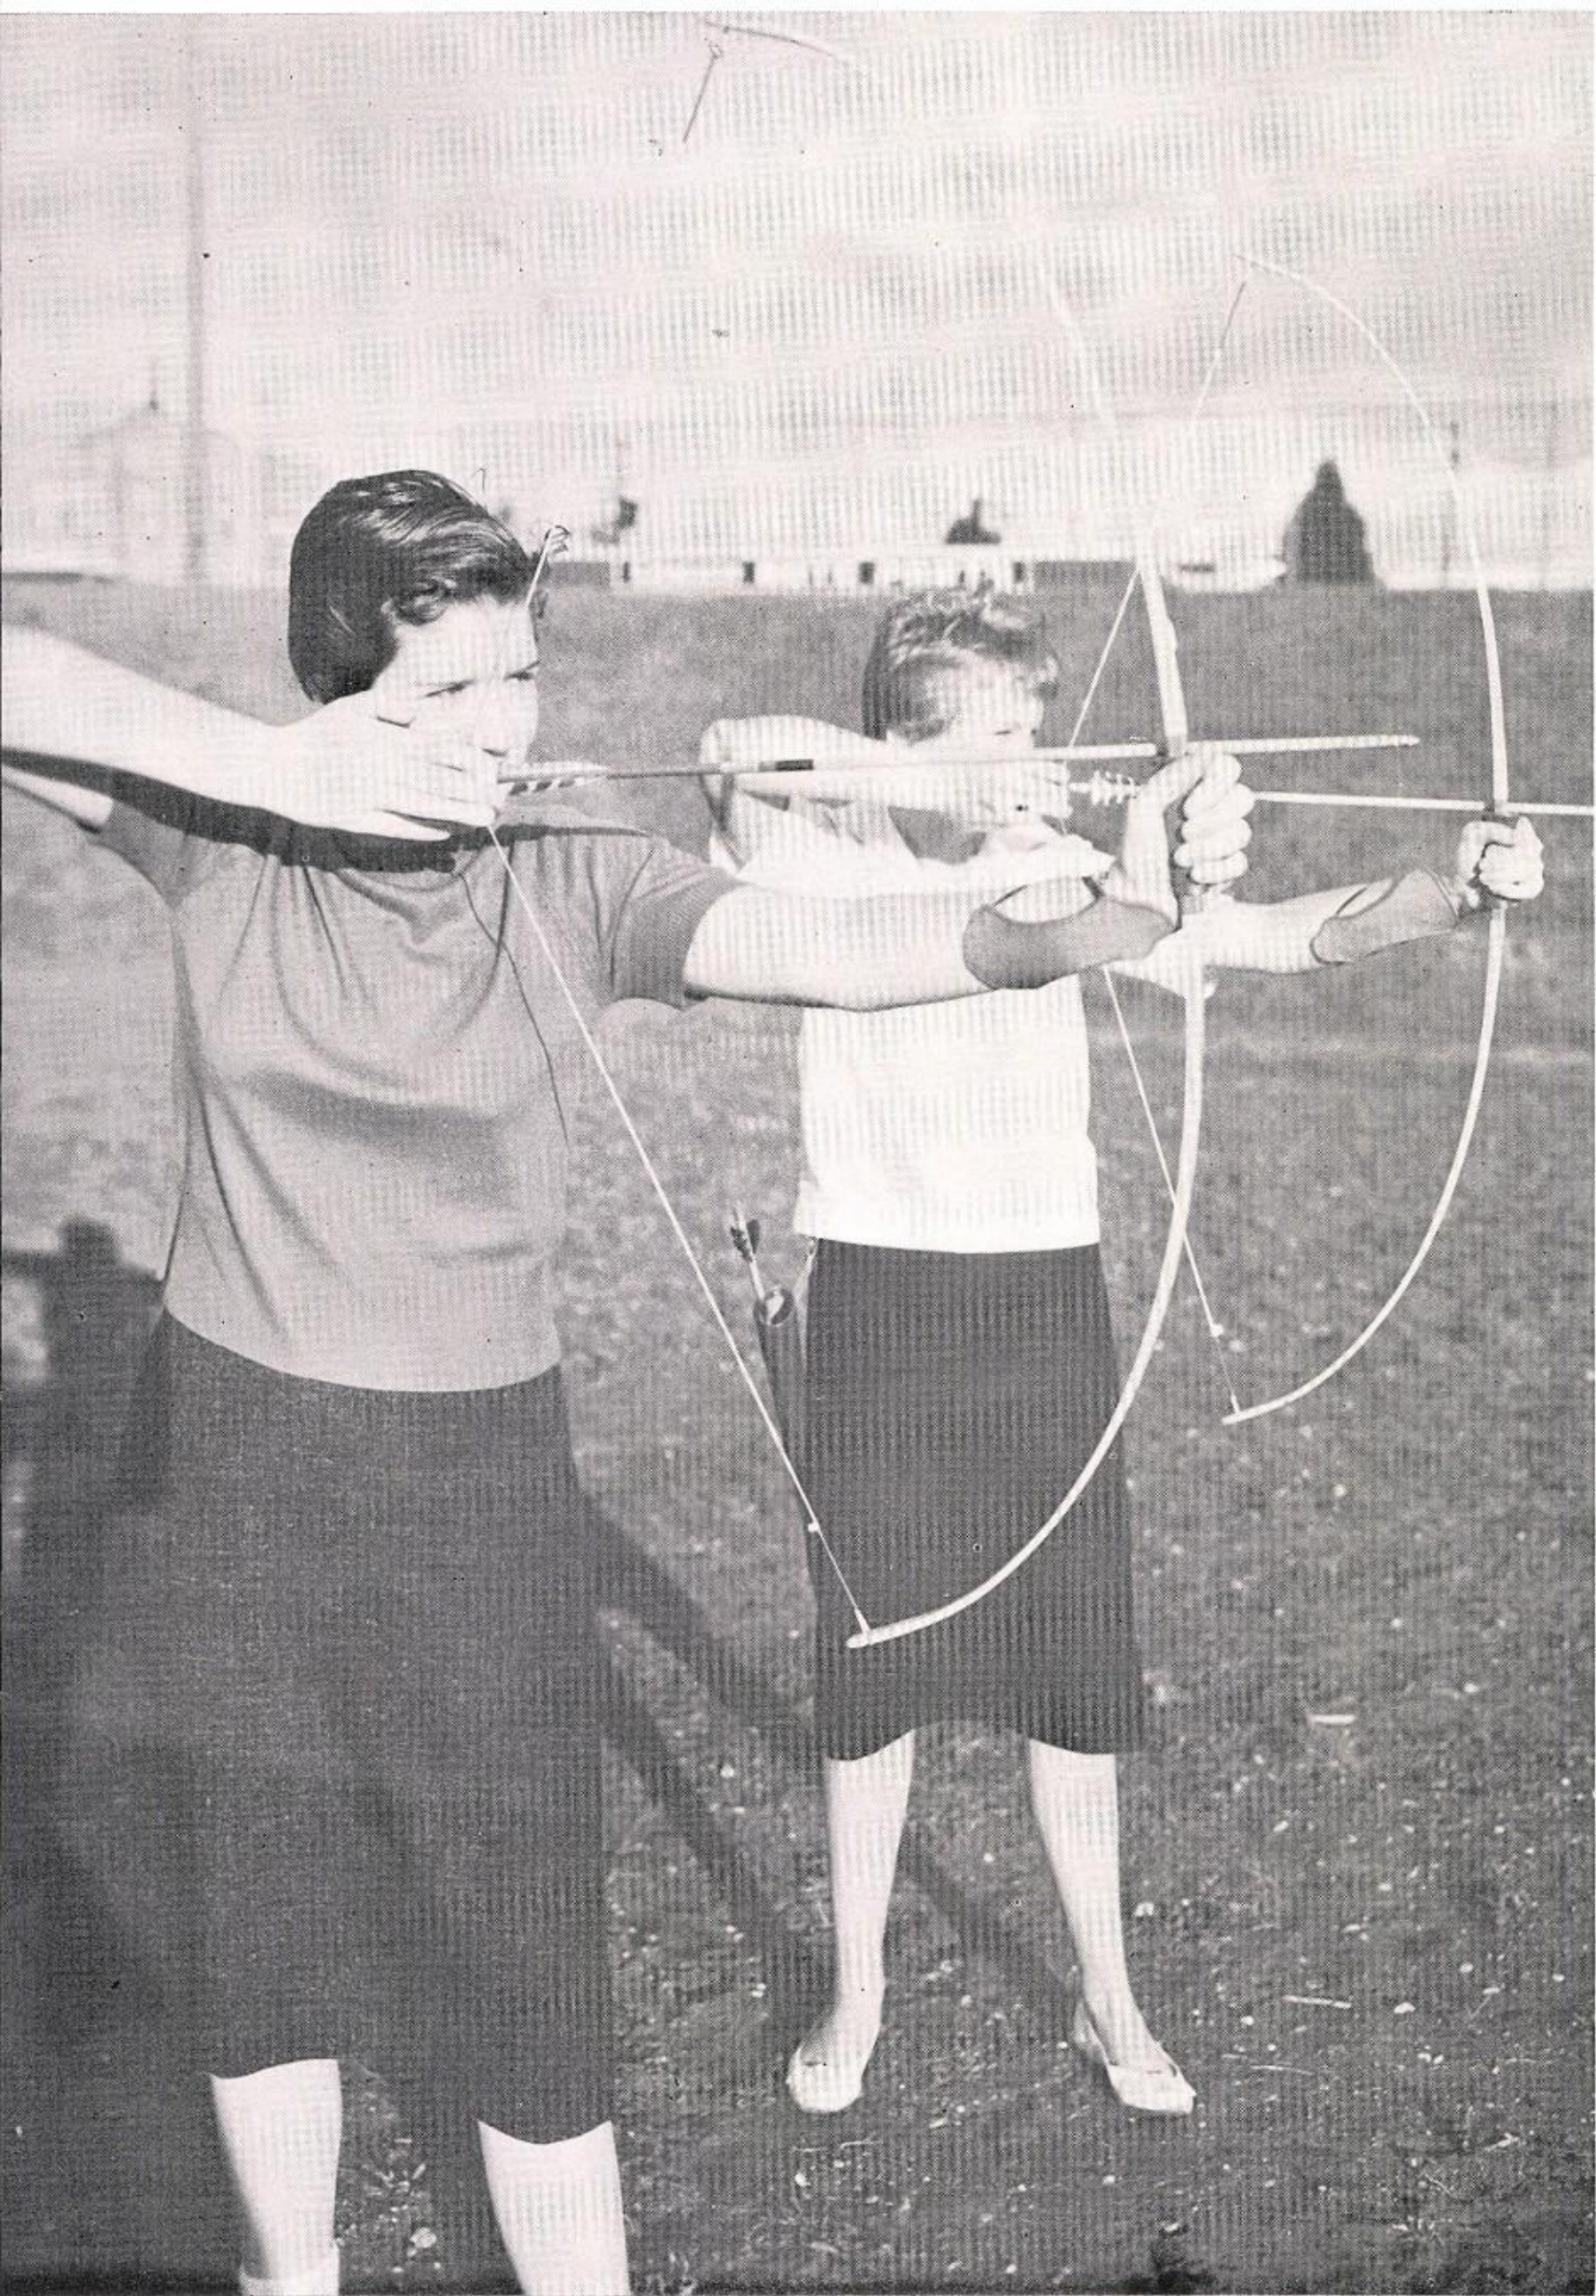

Tennis Letter Winners were: Lynn Erickson, Dick Butsch, Ralph Williams, Gary Greenleef.

Hampered by poor weather, this year's tennis team has gotten off to a slow start, losing their only three matches. Four of the five starters are seniors. Lynn Erickson and Ralph Williams are the outstanding players. Both Erickson and Williams are out to win their third varsity letter. They seem to be well on their way, for Erickson has a strong hold on the number one position, while Williams has captured the second spot. Following these two are Gary Greenleef, the team's only junior, who is third man; Dick Butsch, who holds the fourth position; and Mike Flannery, the fifth man.

Coach Dean Mellor uses the ladder system for establishing team positions. Boys in lower positions may work up by challenging for a higher rung on the ladder. Boys must also accept challenges from teammates below them between challenges for higher spots. Mr. Mellor likes this system because it keeps spirit high.

Although there will be only one letterman, Gary Greenleef, Coach Mellor is looking forward to next season. New tennis courts are being constructed in the Lincoln vicinity. Mellor thinks this will do much to arouse interest in tennis at Lincoln.

According to Connie Johnson, Senate's chairman for this year, "Senate had a most successful year."

Senate's first major project was calling all Lincoln parents to invite them to "Back to School Night." As a result, more parents attended than ever before. A car wash was held to appropriate $125 to the dance band for music. The car wash was set up by the chairman of the Senate Activity Committee, Herb Clark.

Under Connie's direction, Senators put ten small Christmas trees on the lunch tables to brighten up the sometimes gloomy atmosphere of the lunchroom at Christmas time.. The trees were decorated with popcorn and angels on the top. The activity calendar in the second floor hall was, for the third year, an accomplishment of chairman Judy Lund and the members of the Senate Calendar Committee. Dates for coming events were posted for all to see.

Senate sponsored two dances: the Turkey Day dance, and one in the fall. Senate also sponsored a spring swim party at U. P. S.

Lincoln's Student Council gave a start in the form of $3,000 to Mt. Tahoma High School's Student Body Fund.

This year Council held a leadership conference at Lincoln. Ten student body officers from Stadium, Wilson, East Bremerton and West Bremerton attended. A full day was spent discussing leadership activities and exchanging ideas.

Student Council set up the election rules for candidates running for student body officers. Council revised the Constitution for the new "L" Book. Films were purchased on Parliamentary Procedure of A.S.B. Officers and How to Make Student Council More Effective. "These films are available for use by all clubs in Lincoln," said Connie Johnson, L.S.B. Vice President. Student Council, with the help of Senate, sponsored two dances, one in the fall and the Turkey Day Dance.

Affiliation Brings Understanding To Students

Lincoln's exchanger to Carl-Friedrich-von Siemens Schule school in West Berlin, Germany, this year was senior Jim Hauser.

Jim, representing Lincoln as an ambassador of American youth, will help to strengthen the friendship and understanding between schools and countries.

Rainer Kunzel, Siemens' representative here at Lincoln, will return to his country with a new concept of American living, as will Jim of his foster home, Germany.

One of the things which make this exchange program possible is the annual stock sale which enables the students to own a share of international understanding, said Janet Hudina, this year's Affiliation chairman. Under the leadership of Janet and Adviser Dr. Henry Steiger, Affiliation had a very prosperous year.

Abe Skiers Slide Through Year

As the winter season approached, Lincoln skiers anticipated the arrival of enough snow to begin another year of skiing.

Even though this year's weather wasn't as good as it has been in previous years, skiers flocked to the hills for the annual ski school and fought to master their skiing skills from the beginner's "snow plow" to the expert's "christy".

Copper Creek at Paradise was the site of the first trip made by the club in which many novices were initiated to the art of skiing. Then White Pass challenged the club in March.

By skill or by luck no plaster casts or slings were the result of this year's skiing for the Penguin Ski Club.

El Charro Rides In Daffodil Parade

To promote more interest in horsemanship and to improve riding techniques was the aim of the El Charro Club this year as quoted by Joey Hofer.

Ten of the members of the club have their own horses. When the club goes to ride they either go to the Woodbrook Riding Academy or to B. & B.'s where the rest of the members rent horses. Some of the members also took English riding lessons.

As for top events, the Daffodil Parade still ranks as number one for the club.

The club has a project each year of sending a scrapbook of the club's activities to Berlin, Germany, as an exchange program.

This year's officers were Joey Hofer, president; Elizabeth Robinson, vice president; Sharon Lenarz, secretary, and Kay Lundquist, treasurer.

Marcetta Ki Ups Abes Spirit

Rain, sleet and fog helped to make practice more difficult for Lincoln's girls' marching team, the Marcetta Ki.

This group of girls marched during the halftime at our football games and also in such civic affairs as the Daffodil Parade.

To become a member of Marcetta Ki you must be a second semester sophomore and be judged on your posture, reputation, character, figure, appearance and your scholastic ratings. Out of Marcetta Ki sixteen senior girls are chosen to become Marcetts. They must be two-year members. The Marcetts perform during the basketball season.

This year's advisor was Mrs. Cissne. The officers were Marie Antush, president, Karen Dodson, vice president, Carolyn Caddey, secretary, and Judy Shull, treasurer.

Seniors Climb Stairs To The Stars

Silver stars and puffy blue clouds transformed the Fellowship Hall into a celestial paradise when the Class of 1961 presented its Senior Ball, "Stairway to the Stars," April 29. Besides dancing to music of the Starliters, the couples were served refreshments by the Sophomore class officers and had the opportunity to have colored photographs taken.

Co-chairmen were Jan Harrington and Ronald Prather. They were assisted by Barbara Frank, decorations, Donna Boltinghouse, refreshments, Rita Kunsing, publicity, Linda Tavenner, chaperones and guests, and Richard Butch, clean-up.

Guests for the evening were Messrs. and Mesdames Kenneth Flora, John Sharp, George Fallis, Frederick Prather, Stanley Sather and William Foster, Jr.

Ron Prather and Janice Harrington were the co-chairmen for the senior ball, "Stairway to the Stars."

Seniors enjoy the festivities of the annual senior ball.

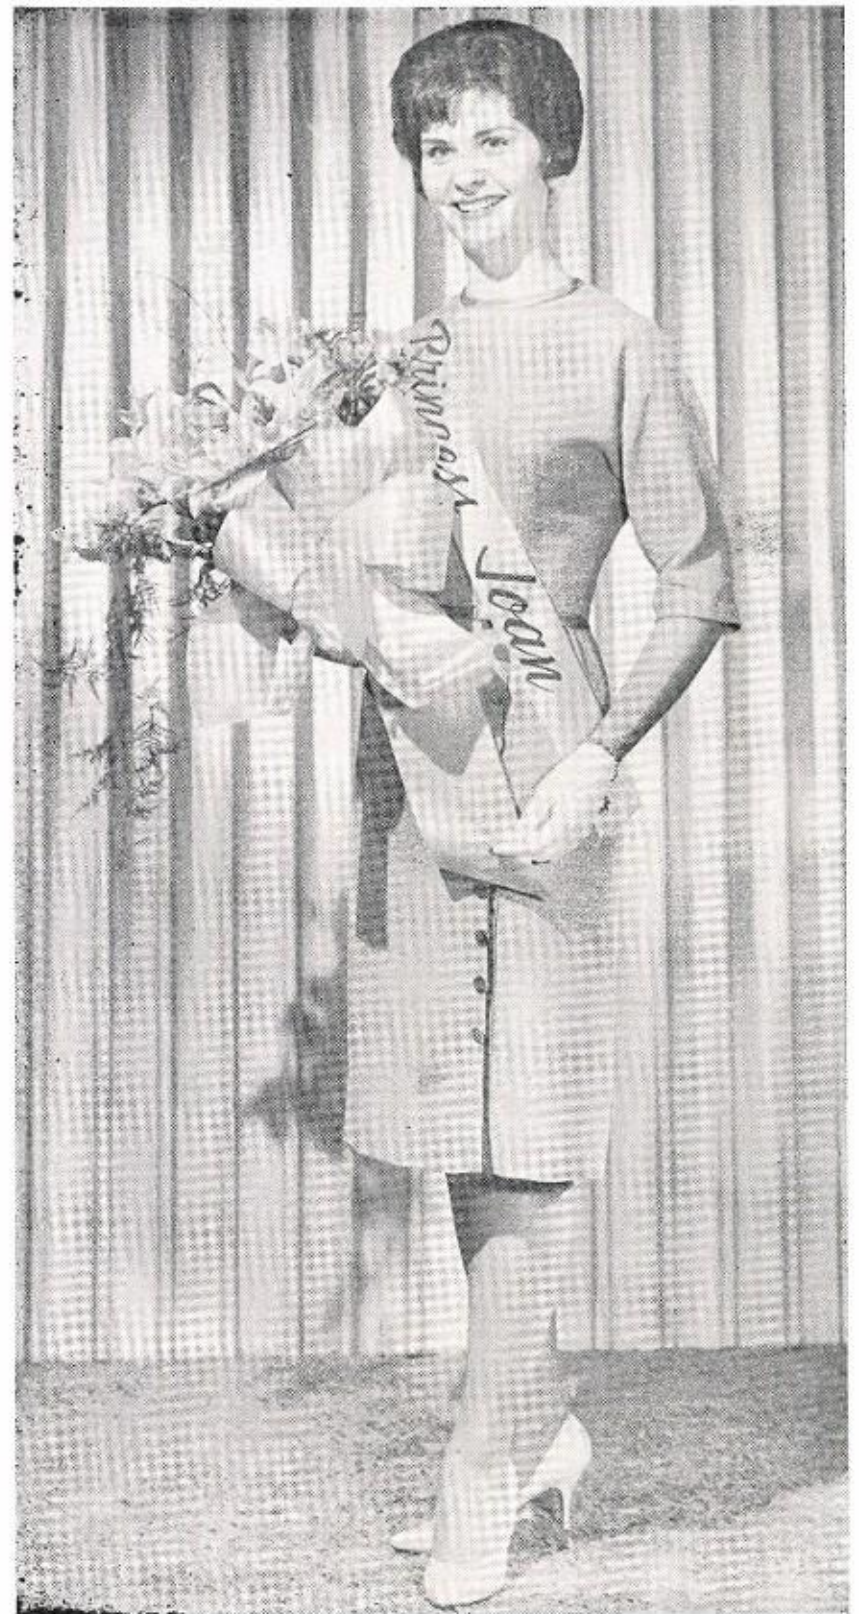

Abe Glamour In Daffodil Court

January, 1961, marked the start of Joan Rushfeldt's reign as Daffodil Princess from Lincoln High School. She was chosen over four other girls, who were Jean Urlacher, Sandy Mueller, Louise Wakeman and Karen Waner.

Before the actual daffodil season Joan attended many civi affairs, such as luncheons, teas and dinners. To be prepared for these affairs Joan received lessons in etiquette, poise and grooming from the Betty Radonich Charm School. Joan also made appearances in television, radio, and spoke to many clubs.

For all of the appearances Joan, along with the other princesses, was given a green skirt, white blouse, mint green sheath dress, white fur jacket, two pairs of shoes, long and short gloves, white purses, hat, daffodil earrings and bracelets.

"Throughout the daffodil festivities my friendship with the other princesses is one that I wish every girl could share with me," said Joan.

Louise Wakeman, Sandy Mueller, Jean Urlacher, Joan Rushfeldt and Karen Waner were Lincoln's five finalists.

Students' Honor Abe

Lincoln Week began on a high note, with the boys carrying the girls' books. The following day the girls carried the boys' books. Lincoln students continued through the week with many exciting events for each day. Lincoln week was climaxed on Friday with an assembly. Spencer Uhl, Steve Biblehimer, and Richard Kalowchuck, beard contest winners, were presented to the students by Sandy Mueller, the Lincoln Week chairman. At this time Janet Hudena was introduced as the dress contest winner. Doug Hopkins, Claudett Girkin, Tom Spring, Carolyn Craig and Judy Campbell gave choral readings. The climax of the assembly was the presentation of Mike Gay and Gloria Hoffman as Abe and Mary Lincoln.

D. E. Prepares Abes For Retail World

F. Norton, A. Lesick, S. Lohre, A. Axlund and C. Reece work on their D.E. projects

Acquiring experience and training in the field of distribution is the opportunity given students through Distributive Education.

Lynx Retailers and Abes Traders are affiliated with the State and National Organization of Distributive Education. Susann Clausen was elected State Historian this year.

Many activities have filled the days of these clubs. Classwork included the production of the club paper, the WDECA Reporter, merchandise manuals, the setting up of displays and the bulletin board.

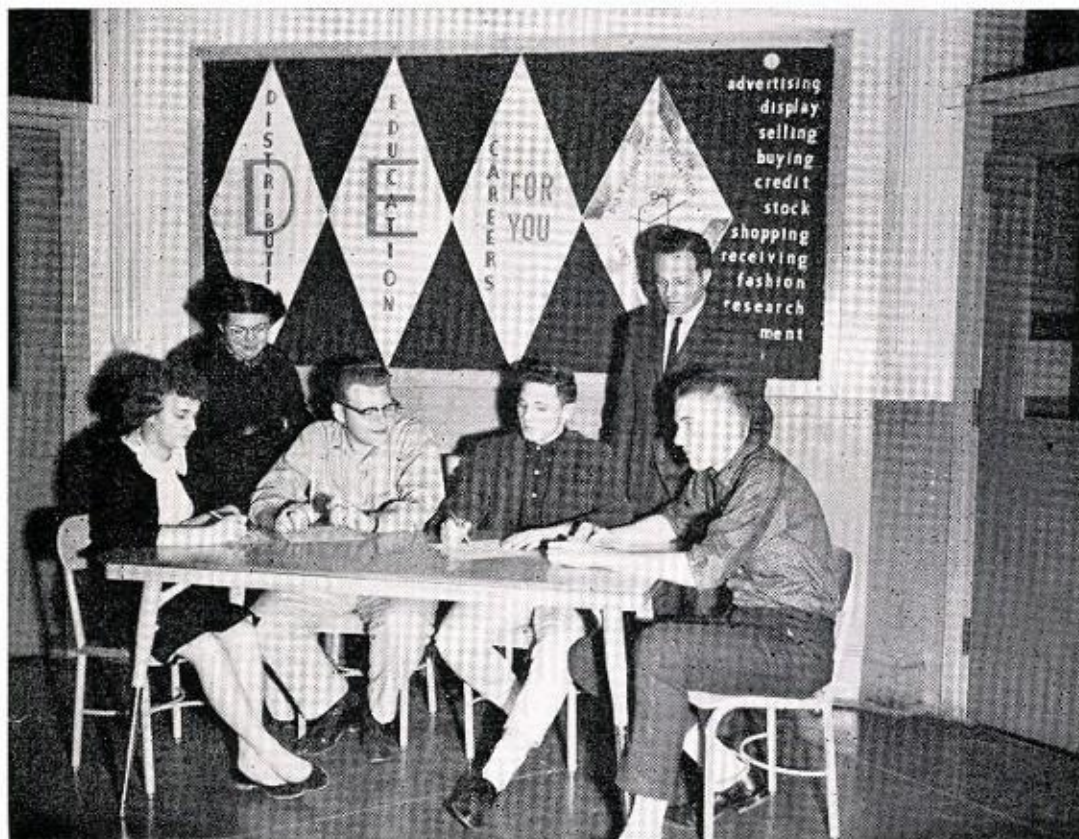

Some of the club's social activities were the Employer-

Employee banquet held to promote better relationships between the student employee and his employer, exchange meetings with Stadium's D. E. clubs, the spring fashion show, and a field trip to the Frederick and Nelson store in Seattle.

Many awards were received at the leadership training conference held in Aberdeen this year.

D. E. day at the Bon Marche was a real challenge and experience gaining day for the D. E. students. It proved very successful, giving the Bon Marche an 81% increase in sales.

Mrs. Doerner is advisor for Distributive Education.

Annual Staff Says:

Grouping and regrouping pictures, writing and rewriting copy, and drawing and redrawing layouts—all of these combined to create hysteria, headaches, havoc, and finally the Lincolnian yearbook.

Staffers laughed at a million private jokes, cried over a million solutionless problems, and spent a million endless hours producing the 174 pages of type and pictures which are the 1961 Lincolnian.

Dear Sherry,
I don't ever think I'll ever forget the first time we really got to know each other.
I think it was in the right place and we went into the ninth and we had such great fun together. But I don't think those days were ever compared to the nice times we've experienced at rope that we were so neat! Only rope that we have a lot of classes together next year. Best of luck to a real sweet girl. A friend always.
